Dear Brad:

As you know, you recently passed the Green Advantage® - Commercial Exam. The purpose of the Green Advantage Program is to promote sustainable construction and real estate development practices by establishing a recognized certification standard for building-related practitioners working in the sustainable development field.

As a result of your passing the Exam, you are free to display the enclosed certificate as you wish, and use the "Green Advantage - Commercial" designation in your marketing materials as an individual credential associated with your name or signature through 7/31/09. After this period, you will have the opportunity to become recertified by taking an updated version of the Green Advantage Exam.

In addition, your name is now included on the Green Advantage website at www.GreenAdvantage.org. The website provides a resource for property owners, architects, engineers, designers, potential employers and others to locate certified green building practitioners. Please visit the website and check your directory listing and make sure the information is updated if your contact information changes. E-mail any problems or recommended modifications to your contact information to ruths@greenadvantage.org.

Again, congratulations and thank you for your participation. If you have any questions or suggestions about the Green Advantage Program, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Grady O'Rear
